

Things you will want to know about the conference

Make Your Hotel Reservations Now: You need to make your reservation now to assure that you receive the conference rate. We have only reserved a certain number of rooms, so in order to get the special rate, reserve now. You can always cancel later if need be.

First Timer Discount: Depending on our finances, we are striving to offer a $50 or $100 discount for first time attendees to the conference.

Yard Sale: Each year we allow people to bring new or used farm or llama items to sell Sunday morning in a yard sale type fashion. For offering this venue for the Seller, we asked that 10% of the totals sales is donated to GALA. This is a fun time to pick up some great things for the farm or your llamas.

Corn Hole Tournament: No need to find a partner. Pay $5 to play. We make the teams and the winner and second runner up win Vendor Bucks. Friday night is the tournament. Photo Contest: The results of the photo contest are displayed at the conference and the voting for the "People's Choice" takes place.

Centerpiece Contest: We need people to make centerpieces for the tables. These centerpieces are auctioned off after Saturday night's dinner. Requirements-- no more than 12" diameter and not more than 12" tall and must have something to do with llamas or alpacas. They can be made out of camelid fiber, wood, metal, plastic, glass, fabric, etc. Have fun with it!

Walk Down Memory Lane: We want to display in the fiber room, some of the wonderful items from the past that people have bought in the auction. If you have an item, bring it along to display for others to enjoy and be inspired. You will get it back!! PUT a 4x 6 card with it owner name, creator, and date purchased.

Veterinarian Only Day: This is a chance for your vet to attend for Friday and participate as many sessions as they want plus eat lunch with other veterinarians.

Pioneers of the Industry: The Llama Pioneers will be holding a Reunion at the same location and date. Contact Niki at info@jnklamas.com for more information.

Fiber, Fun, and Vine: If you are not wanting to play cornhole and just want to relax with some friends while you knit, spin, crochet, needle felt, or chat. Grab a glass of wine.

Vendor Bucks: Everyone will get $10 of Vendor Bucks to spend with the vendors.

Fashion Show/ Show and Tell: During lunch we will feature people and their fiber creations as they walk through the audience to be admired. One sentence description.

Costume Party: It wouldn't be Halloween without a costume party. Friday night dinner is the time to don your disguise.

Saturday Night Dinner and Auction: Come as you like, casual to dressy. This special dinner is followed by a live auction. So bring an item for the auction or get ready to bid! Either way, all proceeds go to camelid research.
